

TLN ASC 10/2/17 MILFORD PUBLIC LIBRARY

Meeting called to order 10 am by Jakki Malner
(substituting for Chair Jessica Parij)

Approval of August minutes motioned by Karla Gibson and seconded by Anna Brougher

Old Business

Special Collections list discussion: 12 pages long at this point. We are requesting suggestions and decision to separate into two lists: Special Collections and E-Resources

Presenters Showcase is this December at Plymouth Library : 15 responses and only 1 or 2 repeats from last year.

New Business

2018 Meeting Locations

Feb - Westland

April - Rochester Hills

June - Field Trip

August - Hartland

Oct - Baldwin

Dec - Dearborn Heights Caroline Kennedy

Mass Market PB collections discussion: where to shelve, how to shelve, how to circulate. Methods range from no barcodes to collections by genre.

HART - Welcome, Glenn Fischer, undergrad in chemistry and former science/math Librarian. Renovations complete. 200 people attended 90th anniversary party. 300 people attended family fun day. Glenn presents "Hacking Your Taste Buds" programs based on podcasts using Miracle Berry - he brings together science and podcasting and plant based food options.

WHLK - upcoming programs : Red Cross Vietnam war volunteer "Donut Dolly: An American Red Cross Girl's War in Vietnam" author Joann Kotcher, Tom Carr , Repair Cafe, Alzheimers, Music of WWI. Update on new construction: negotiations continue.

HIGH - DIA Inside Out art exhibit thru Dec. Photo Organizing - presenter referred by Soo Porter. Gardening for Birds presented by Birds Unlimited. Podcasts Program.

PMTH - Talk Like a Pirate Day - treasure hunt thru downtown. Great Lakes speaker. Cut The Cord. SCORE - small business one on one. Internet of Things - a program about smart refrigerator, Amazon Echo. Ongoing programs include ESL, board games, chess, book clubs, craft and needlecraft, Medicare, PC classes. The library wi-fi does not work intermittently.

SPRI - Classic Movies monthly Saturday matinee. Meditation series by Heartfulness Institute. Beauty of Springfield Photo Contest. Michigan Notable Books is a new evening book club. Participated in Heritage Festival Parade. New : JigSaw Puzzle contest.

WTLD - Kristy Robinette Hauntings program. New: Chili Cookoff. 4 part genealogy program, once a week for a month. 25 registered! Halloween cupcake decorating. New book club meeting at Leo's Coney Island. Escape Room. A new Library Board has been elected. A search firm will seek a new director.

FERN - Yesterday first Sunday open in years, 12-5, not determined whether this will be year-round. New director started in June. Annual Halloween Party theme Spooky Circus. Local Author.

CNTN - They have a Community Relations dept that plans programs. Google Tips & Tricks. Genealogy. Looking forward to staff area renovation Jan - April.

COMM - finishing genealogy series. The result of Senior Center renovation Oct-Feb is moving the senior center activities to library.. NaNoWriMo. Great Foodini. Great Michigan Read. Riots of 1943. Therapy Light station. Jeff Rossin from Rossin to the Rescue. Book-a-Librarian.

ALPK - DIA Inside Out art exhibit. Movies. Haunted Library event. Mummy escape room for teens and adults. Combining teen and adult programs successful. Kristy Robinette Messages from a Wonderful Afterlife. Friday the 13th Superstition Party. Solar Eclipse - 900 eclipse glasses and 900 people - best program ever. Free shredding.

TAYL - Library for the Blind holds programs 3 Wednesdays a month, very popular. Knit and crochet. New Book Club for 13 year olds and up successful. Coloring. Crafting Book Club.

WIXM - Solar Eclipse was a huge event. We had 100 pairs of glasses to distribute and share. Face Reader Lin Klassen presented Body Language by Lin, an interesting powerpoint/lecture. Social Security and Longevity Planning, free presentation, was well attended. 3 book clubs, monthly movie and pizza night, Coloring Night is popular as are monthly crafts, and ESL Cafe and ESL Book Club meet weekly and are hosted, for free, by a certified ESL teacher.

DHTN - Heartfulness Meditation series starting. Psychology of the Paranormal presented by John Michniak. Art Deco in Detroit. Lewis & Clark expedition. Belle Isle.

WYDT - 6 week program on diabetes, free, presented by Beaumont . Tom Carr, author. New partnership - Amateur Radio group - 8 people registered. Craft Night partnered with Jaycees group. New Children's Librarian, formerly from Lincoln Park. Cutting the Cord. Partner with restaurant that is coming in to teach Pierogi making.

BELL - PC Basics classes are well attended. All ages programs do well. Rock painting success. Stained glass artist. Travelogue. 3-D Printing seminar.

BALD - Renovation complete and successful. New Idea Lab makerspace with new staff. 90th anniversary with 1920 theme event. Salsa cook off contest at end of SRC with a chef and judges. Teen lock in after hours Friday night includes adults and spooky walk thru library. WWII Stolen Art presented by DIA docents.

MILF - Ongoing book discussion with changing themes, current theme is Books for Foodies. Medicare programs. Craft programs. Soo Porter Organizing Your Life. Tom Carr author of Blood on the Mitten. Social Security. Genealogy 101.

Meeting adjourned 11:59 motioned by Anna and seconded by Karla

ALPK - Anna Brouger
BALD - Vicki Sower
BELL - Amy Greschaw
CANT - Amy Lee
CHEL - Shannon Powers
COMM - Cherie Edmonds
DEXT - Lisa Ryan
DHTN - Rob Butler
FADL - Darlene Hellenberg

MILF - Sarah Hatter
PMTH - Katy Kramp
SPRI - Kimberly Schaaf
TAYL - Jackie Whinihan
TLN - Briget Felix
WHLK - Denise Harris-Fiems
WIXM - Karla Gibson
WTLD - Danielle Hansard
WYDT - Jakki Malnar and Kelly Ray

