

Library Director: Howell, MI

The Board of Trustees of Howell Carnegie District Library (HCDL) seeks a dynamic and visionary leader to serve as Library Director.

Located in southeastern Michigan between Lansing and Ann Arbor, the City of Howell is a charming Midwestern town noted for its picturesque downtown and abundant community spirit. An award-winning expansion of the original Carnegie library positioned HCDL well for the 21st century. The library is located in the heart of the city and plays a significant role in the life of the residents.

The Director opening is a great opportunity for someone who wants to lead the library as it continues to embrace its vital role in the life of this community.
