

Public Library Director: Palatine, IL (Chicago area)

The Board of Trustees of Palatine Public Library District seeks a dynamic and visionary leader to serve as Director.

Located in the northwest suburbs of Chicago, Palatine offers all the amenities of suburban life plus easy access to the greater Chicago area. Palatine is a welcoming and diverse community that prides itself on its excellent schools, parks, and community spirit.

This is an exciting opportunity for someone who wants to lead the library forward as it continues to embrace its central role in the community.
