

Director, Monarch Library System (Wisconsin)

Monarch Library System, one of 16 state-funded regional library systems in Wisconsin, seeks an enthusiastic and visionary leader as its next Director. Headquartered in Sheboygan, the system supports 31-member libraries that provide service to more than 425,000 residents of four counties.

The Director opening is a great opportunity to lead the library system forward and strengthen its member libraries by fostering collaboration and innovation. The ideal candidate will be someone with a passion and talent for communicating, networking, and planning.

Salary $85,000/year or higher, negotiable based on experience. Excellent benefits.
